

high in many places and some rods long.

The water is next back and the pond was overflowed and made itself into a larger one. The house was built on the bottom of the pond and rose some feet above the surface. It looked like nothing but a mass of sticks placed crosswise to cover the rooms within. It is worth going miles to see this wonderful work of such small animals. So ended a perfect day, as the company broke up and went to their several homes.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall, Agnes Hall, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr.

and Mrs. Merritt Sawin, North Waterford; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millett, Betts, Sylvia, Barbara and Arthur Robert Millett, Waterford; Mr. and Mrs. George Crooker, Allen Crooker, Mrs. Stephen Klament, Antoinette Klament, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Kimball, Edna, Ethel, Merritt and William Kimball.

KEZAR FALLS

Rev. Arthur Cullaghan officiated at the services held for W. O. Merrifield at his home at 2 p. m., July 20th. The house was filled with friends from the neighborhood, and the service was fragrant of many flowers. Mrs. Stockbridge front Boston, Mass., represented the lifelong friendship which had existed between the Alden Spears Sons and the Merrifields. The service was well mourned. W. T. Norton sang the "Old Rugged Cross" with much pathos. Mr. Merrifield was a charter member of the Alden Spears Sons, and his friends were Ed Bachelder, Frank Hubbard, Elmer Ridlon and Frank Goodwin. The commitment at the grave was a fine piece of mechanism. The flowers were placed on the ground, the basket quietly sinking to its place beneath.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Garner and their son, William, were among those called to the grave. Also present were Mr. C. Fogg of Portland, Mrs. Fred I. Will of Lewiston, Mrs. Addie Glatipack of Woodfords, and Willis Bickerton of Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marshall of Bridgeport are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Warren. Mr. and Mrs. Lilla Gentleman of Havelock, N. C. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tewksbury and three children are on the Davis farm for two months.

July 21st, the Ladies' Circle was in session with Mrs. Lillian Croes to spend the day with her in her camp at Lake Sebago.

Frank Boston, our most aged veteran is considered dangerously sick.

Oxford County United Parish

The Church Daily Vacation Schools are now in session. The first session of three weeks is being held at Waterford with classes of nearly eighty. This session will close next Friday with a public program and exhibition work to which all parents and friends are invited. The second three weeks session will be begun next week at East Stoneham. Transportation cars will be run through Albany, New York and other remote communities. It is expected that the Stoneham session will have a larger enrollment than that at Waterford. Local teachers and helpers are being used to assist the staff, and are doing excellent work.

Last Friday evening a fine concert was given at the Wilkins House, Waterford, by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, Miss Pauline New York City, the proceeds from the concert were given to the Waterford vacation school fund, and will help pay the expenses and have recently been successfully tested on July 17th. Other equipment will be added as funds are available.

The All-Parish service was held last Sunday evening at South Waterford, on the shore of Bear Pond. Rev. H. C. Colby of South Paris gave a very inspiring and helpful address.

Last Sunday morning at the North Waterford service the sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. West of Mount Vernon, N. Y. Mr. West has a summer camp on Kearsarge Lake.

Next Sunday evening another All-Parish service will be held at the Wilkins House, Waterford, on the shore of Lake Umbagog. The subject of the service will be "The White House Homestead and the White House Homestead."

On Friday evening, July 30, at East Stoneham, after the Circle supper, a lecture was given by Mrs. Margaret Eggleston on the subject, "Russia a Challenge to Menace."

Sunset Service

The Sunset service of last Sunday on the shore of Lake Kearsarge, at Whitehead's Beach, was largely attended. The musical numbers sung by Erle B. Renwick (two solos) and a piano solo by Miss Grete Heyer, were much enjoyed by all present. The congregational singing, under Mr. Renwick's leadership, Miss Heyer, pianist, Mrs. Heim, trumpeter, was hearty, particularly the solo and chorus, "In the Garden" and the hymn, "Sister as the Years Go By". William Bittles led the responsive scripture reading. Dr. Brown spoke on Job 6:25, "How horrible are right words!" Similar service next Sunday, July 26th at 6:30 standard time. Everybody cordially welcome.

Historical Pageant at Bethel

One hundred and fifty years ago on August third, occurred the last Indian Raid on New England. Sudbury, Conn., was changed to the Amassagutcook tribe. Prisoners were taken and scalped and the houses were robbed and burned.

On the one hundredth anniversary, Bethel celebrated the death anniversary of David. A block house was erected on the Common and amid much shooting and cannonading this house was burned and the occupants scalped and buried at the stake.

This year, which is the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary, the George A. Putnam Post, No. 81, American Legion, is staging a historical pageant to celebrate the event. To help fill up the day the following program has been arranged:

10:00 Parade.
10:30 Ball Game.
11:00 Graduated Jump.
11:30 Airplane Stunting.
12:00 Lunch.
12:30 Sports.
2:00 Concert.

Beside a Midway, which will be going all day, the Fifth Infantry Military Band will be in attendance.

From 4:30 to 10 p. m. the band will be dancing in a specially erected pavilion in the village streets.

"Daddy" Vivian of the "Gale" way, swam from his dock to the "Camp Restdale" boat house on the opposite side of the lake. Three quarters of a mile is quite a swim for a twelve year old. If anyone wishes to find out what is like to have a racing motor boat in one's lap while going full speed, consult Louis Parent at "Media Lodge".

SALVATION ARMY

Letters have been mailed this week to the people of Norway and Paris, and vicinity in connection with the Annual Appeal of The Salvation Army, and the committee is hopeful for a generous response. Who does not know of the wonderful work of The Salvation Army? From red tape, the Army goes straight to the heart of human need, with clothing, medicine, food and home for all, and, best with count and love for all. If you personally, could see one case of want, or hear one pathetic plea, now spring to aid. The joy of contributing to the Annual General Maintenance Appeal of The Salvation Army, now in progress. Your gift may save a home, a life, or a soul. As this is the only authorized appeal, The Salvation Army will make this year's your prompt and generous response to the request. Please mail your check to Treasurer Irving O. Barrows, of the Paris Trust Company. You may be sure that your generosity will be appreciated by The Salvation Army, by this committee, and by the distressed men, women and children you will help.

A coil on the high tension feed wire burned out at the Central Maine Power Co. station here, Monday morning. Electric service in this vicinity was suspended until repairs were made. Mr. and Mrs. Gertrude Hayes and son, Edward, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Fayer and family for ten days, left Wednesday morning for their home in Orono.

A new steel roof has been laid on one side of the exhibition hall and wing at the fair grounds. More extensively repaired than at first contemplated have been necessary on the large grand stand. Many timbers and sills were found unsafe and are being replaced by Harry Greenleaf and crew of carpenters. Other improvements will be made before the big show in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer R. Luck and Mrs. George F. Hathaway have been overtearing at their cottage, Pineholm, Lake Pennesseewassee, Miss Mabel Hathaway of Rockport, Mass., and South Paris, Me. Mrs. Hathaway's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Dering of Hillsburgh, were their guests for several days. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luck will spend the month of August with them at the cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cummings from Rockford, Ill., were in town Friday and called at the C. B. Cummings & Sons Co. office to make inquiries for relatives. After telling his family connections, Miss Charlotte Lovejoy recognized the family story as belonging in her line, and they proved to be cousins. It was strange that they found whom they were looking for on the first inquiry.
